SURREY, B.C. V3S2E7

Understanding the value of arranging one's cemetery and funeral services in advance is not as difficult as it seems. In fact, pre-arranging is the most loving, caring and considerate act someone can do because it spares their loved ones the burden and responsibility of making emotional and financial decisions at their most difficult time.

Today's Gospel offers a rare framework—a story in a story. Most of the healing miracles are stand-alone encounters. One person approaches Jesus, demonstrates faith, and is healed. The evangelist tells the next story. This Gospel, however, is different. Jesus is on His way to heal one person, a young girl of twelve, and is interrupted on

His journey by "a woman afflicted with hemorrhages." She bravely approaches Jesus in a crowd, despite being ritually unclean from her bleeding, and stretches out to touch His cloak. She is healed! Jesus meets her eye, confirms her faith, and continues on to resurrect the young girl.

Reading this passage, it might be easier to identify with one story—the long-suffering woman or the young, innocent girl—and to move past the other. But here they sit side by side. The girl is twelve. The woman has been suffering for twelve years. For the Gospel writers, number parallels have deep symbolic meaning.

Between the woman and the young girl, we are not one or the other. We are both. None of us had a perfect childhood, perfect families, or a perfect peer group. As we endure pain, disappointment, or unmet expectations, it can feel like a part of our childhood hopes have died. Our coping mechanisms, social adaptations, and hidden secrets can make us the "walking wounded" in some respects. Jesus wants to do more than simply staunch the bleeding. His healing hand makes dead things come alive. He awakens the dreams that are asleep. The process requires prayer, conversations with trusted community and spiritual mentors, and critical looks at difficult areas of our life. However, we can believe the words of our Lord. If we approach Jesus in faith, believing that He wants to heal and save, we, too, will hear His calming words spoken over the hurts of our life. "I say to you, arise!" "Go in peace."

A Prayer of Thanks for Freedom

Oh, Lord, thank you for the bountiful blessings You have shed on my country: for freedom that allows us to pursue happiness at our own pace and to worship You at all times—for peace within our borders for many generations—for the opportunity to govern ourselves and for a system of justice built upon the foundation of law and judgment by our peers. As Your blessings are recalled with gratitude, hear our prayer that our land may never lose its sense of compassion for all those truly in need. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

- Ladies, we are still waiting for the RAR key to come home. Check your pockets and/or purses please.
- Summer should be a time to relax. No meetings, nothing structured. But this does not mean that we, CWL members, are asleep. We continue to serve the Lord, to spread His love, to pray and to show kindness. It may be even harder with our children around the whole day. Let us ask Mary, our patroness for guidance.
- Continue to pray for the many intentions and requests which have come to our attention. Remember, we are ladies of prayer.
- Please help in the funeral reception for Margaret Robinson on Wednesday, July 4—sweets/sandwiches would be appreciated. Call Mary if you can help. Ria Ling

Dear Parishioners: Summer vacation puts a special strain on the food bank. With the children at home, it is very hard for some parents to have enough snacks and drinks available. Can we help out? We will have bins for your kid-friendly donations from July 1 to August 31.

Monthly Eucharistic Adoration—Intensive Prayer

The Matthew 7.7 Prayer Brigade, a group of prayer warriors from the Office of the Filipino Ministry, gather month-to-month in different parishes for Intensive Prayer with Scriptural Rosaries during a 3-hour Eucharistic Adoration. On July 8, 2018, 1 to 4 PM, we will be in St. Luke's Parish, 20285 Dewdney Trunk Road, Maple Ridge. Please come join us in praying for peace, for our Church, for families, for healing, for families experiencing difficulties and broken relationships, and for various other intentions. Prayers are in English and invitation is for all. Petitions and Thanksgiving boxes are provided and will be brought to the Blessed Sacrament before start of Adoration.

LIVE THE LITURGY

God does not rejoice in our demise or our destruction. Rather, He made us in His image and desires that we have life. He also desires that we be healed and know His loving touch. There is great power in an embrace. The touch of another can heal wounds and restore life. There is also power in faith. Faith can turn us toward the truth and turn us toward God. God can profoundly change how we see Him and be healed of all that wounds and binds us so that we can be free and enjoy the fullness of life. Reach out and share your faith with someone this week so that they can receive God's life-changing embrace.

Rosary Rally: Our Lady said, "Only I can help you." Come and ask her to obtain graces for the world and our families, particularly by praying for the fulfillment of the consecration of Russia to her Immaculate Heart. We also recall her 3rd apparition at Fatima, on July 13, 1917. This rally will be at the NORTH Plaza of the Vancouver Art Gallery, facing West Georgia St. (not the south Plaza on Robson St.). Saturday, July 14, from 10 to 11 A.M. For more info, please contact David Pearce at 604-929-4812.

Pilgrimage of Our Lady of Namacpacan in Vancouver: The 8-foot image of Our Lady of Namacpacan from Luna, La Union, Philippines, one of the canonically crowned images of St. Mary's patron saint, will be staying inside St. Mary's Parish, Vancouver, until August 30. Activities during the pilgrimage include a Welcoming Mass, celebrated by Archbishop Miller, dinner, novena, and a Thanksgiving Mass and Banquet. For more details, visit rcav.org/event/pilgrimage-of-our-lady-of-namacpacan-in-vancouver.

Stewardship: "... as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality." 2 Corinthians 8:14. We are responsible not only for our own lives, but for the lives of those around us. It is important that we not only grow, nurture and share our gifts, but that we also teach our children and encourage others to do the same. This is the communal aspect of our Catholic faith. We are the "Body of Christ". We are called to be dependent on each other and not live in isolation.

MONTH FIVE—Developing Baby
Your spiritually adopted baby weighs over one pound now. His/her mother can feel his/her movement now. Before, he/she was too small for her to feel. Although he/she swam with ease in his/her watery world, he/she needed to be big and strong enough to kick hard against the outside wall and dent it—the inside wall of the uterus has no feeling. We are mid-way through the pregnancy now. Your prayers have helped your baby's mother continue with her pregnancy and seek the help she needs.
